Mentorship Opportunity for Provisionally Licensed (LCSW) Clinicians

Hello, I am Doug Foresta, an experienced LICSW with a rich background in therapy and mentorship. With over 17 years of hands-on therapy experience, I have developed a deep understanding and passion for guiding emerging therapists. I own a successful private practice and have had the privilege of leading a team of therapists at Talkspace.

Additionally, my academic involvement includes teaching social work at Westfield State University in both the BSW and MSW programs. This unique blend of practical and academic experience positions me ideally to mentor and support those embarking on their journey towards independent licensure.

I am currently seeking provisionally licensed social workers (LCSW) who are eager to enter into a mentorship arrangement. This program is designed to support you as you work towards full licensure and contemplate building your own practice.

- Flexibility in client load, allowing you to see as few or as many clients per week as you desire.
- Referrals to help you build a robust client caseload.
- Access to both my online platform and physical office space, providing a comprehensive work environment.

I am Looking For:

- LCSW social workers who are self-motivated

I warmly invite interested provisionally licensed therapists to connect with me to explore whether this mentoring model aligns with your professional aspirations.
